On the opening night of the 6th Annual Vancouver Turkish Film Festival, I would like to extend a warm welcome to all attendees. I regret that I am not able to attend myself, due to a prior commitment.

I want to commend the Turkish Canadian Society for organizing this festival, as it provides a place for the Turkish community in Vancouver to both promote and participate in their rich cultural heritage. This sharing of experience is the essence of multiculturalism in Canada and is important to ensure a broader understanding and appreciation for the diverse populations in our community.

The film being shown tonight, A Tale of Three Sisters by Emin Alper, follows three women through hardship and displays their resilience in the face of adversity.

Thank you for your continued support of the arts, and I hope you enjoy the film this evening!

Sincerely,

OFFICE OF THE HON. HEDY FRY, P.C., M.P.
